» Greetings, kia ora, kia orana, fakalofa lahi atu, taloha ni.

This is the second year that I have introduced the St John Yearbook, which records another year of exceptional achievement for the Order of St John in New Zealand.

As Prior, I conduct Investitures and chair meetings of Priory Chapter, but also my wife Susan and I see the work of St John in many different ways as we travel throughout the country.

In one week alone we saw St John represented at the National Children's Day celebrations at Government House in Wellington and also at a grants presentation function in Dunedin. As well as providing a valuable community service, exposure such as I have noted above can only encourage people to come forward to participate in the Order's work for the general good. Support of volunteering is also very commendable.

Through the Youth inspections that precede Investitures, and at the presentation of Grand Prior's Awards, Susan and I see the enthusiasm and commitment of St John cadets. This year there were so many Awards to be presented in Auckland that a specific St John presentation ceremony was held at Government House. We were delighted to see New Zealand's young people at their best.

The Yearbook is a valuable record of the Order's membership and organisation and, along with the companion Annual Report, records a year of achievement and service to New Zealand.

May God bless you all, as you continue to care for our communities and for each other as members of a united organisation seeking to enhance the health and well-being of all New Zealanders.

Thank you for everything that you are doing for the Order of St John and for our communities.

No reira, tena koutou, tena koutou, kia ora, kia kaha, tena koutou katoa.

Hon Anand Satyanand PCNZM, QSO, KStJ
St John Prior and Governor-General of New Zealand

Thank you for everything that you are doing for the Order of St John and for our communities."

His Excellency The Hon Anand Satyanand | Prior

Care for patients, families and communities lies at the heart of St John. Whether we're dispatching an ambulance, treating patients or supporting elderly or unwell clients with a St John Lifelink™ Alarm, compassion is an essential part of our service.

We have implemented further initiatives this year to ensure we continue to work toward our vision – enhanced health and well-being for all New Zealanders – and reach standards of excellence across all our services.

COLLABORATION IMPORTANT

From the beginning of our history in New Zealand more than 120 years ago, we have engaged with local communities. This approach remains the foundation of our organisation.

We are committed to openness and collaboration with all our stakeholders, including with our Crown funders – the Ministry of Health and ACC.

In 2008 the Government started work on a long-term strategy for the delivery of Ambulance services. We are delighted the Government is undertaking this forward planning in liaison with Ambulance New Zealand and all Ambulance providers, including ourselves and other key parties.

We are pleased the Ministry of Health and ACC moved in 2008 to contract with St John for two years, rather than one, enabling longer-term planning and a firmer basis for investment decisions.

NEW TRUST BOARD MEMBERS

We were delighted to welcome two esteemed new members to our national Trust Board this year. Public sector management consultant and former State Services Commissioner Don Hunn CNZM and Auckland District Health Board Director of Surgery Ian Civil MBE CSTJ ED bring a wealth of expertise and experience to our Board.

BUILDING COMMUNITY RESILIENCE

Ambulance remains a cornerstone activity. We have experienced continuing growth in demand for our Ambulance and Events services, with demand forecast to continue to increase.

We believe we are ideally positioned to deliver a range of initiatives to support our Ambulance service, reduce unnecessary demand for emergency ambulances, build community resilience and further improve the health and well-being of all New Zealanders.

We trained a further 55,000 people this year in first aid and essential, life-saving skills, and our St John Safe Kids and St John Youth programmes both grew.

Community resilience continues to improve with the deployment of St John Lifelink Alarms, and we are working to develop further initiatives to provide support for people in need of care who wish to remain living in their own homes.

We are actively scoping a role of paramedic practitioner to provide primary health care services in communities and people's homes when they are not responding to emergency callouts. The type of care envisaged could include preventative health checks, diagnoses and vaccination programmes.

Such initiatives are designed to position St John as a primary health care provider at the 'top of the cliff' – complementing our role as an emergency ambulance service.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

We have entered a range of community partnerships this year, delivering significant benefits to communities.

We signed an Alliance Agreement in August 2007 with global medical products specialist Laerdal, focused on improving cardiac survival rates.

In New Zealand, more than 1,000 people go into cardiac arrest outside of hospital every year and currently only eight percent survive. We aim to improve the survival rate, following the example set by 'best in class' locations, such as Seattle and Rochester in the United States and Stavanger in Norway. These cities report a cardiac survival rate outside of hospital of nearly thirty percent.

We are also working to increase the community availability of defibrillators designed for the public to use.

In another valuable partnership, we teamed up with NZ Cricket in 2008, with St John named the Charity of Choice for the BLACKCAPS national cricket team for two years.

St John, NZ Cricket and BLACKCAPS players are together promoting community participation and awareness of injury prevention and first aid. NZ Cricket is also assisting us with fundraising and public awareness campaigns.

In June this year, we announced a major new partnership with ASB designed to build caring communities, extend delivery of our health-related services and products to communities, and increase community support for St John. Together, we are offering free CPR training for 11,000 people by the end of 2008. This is one of a range of service initiatives that will be delivered to New Zealanders by ASB and St John working together in the community.

COMMUNITY CARE PROGRAMMES

Our community care programmes continue to go from strength to strength. Our Friends of the Emergency Department programme has enjoyed outstanding success. This year we extended the service into five new hospital emergency departments – Middlemore (Auckland), Whakatane, Gisborne, Hawkes Bay and Palmerston North, taking the total number of Emergency Departments benefiting from our programme to 17.

Other St John community programmes enriching lives and improving the health and well-being of New Zealanders include our Caring Caller programme, St John Health Shuttles and Outreach Therapy Pets.

Our growing volunteer programmes are testimony of the high esteem in which St John is held in our communities.

CLINICAL EXCELLENCE

Achieving clinical excellence is of prime importance for St John. Our objective is to ensure our clinical skills are of the highest standard and are at the forefront of national and international best practice.

We have developed a contemporary Operations Competency Framework, which is being finalised now. We are consulting with our members on the Framework with a view to rolling it out this coming year. The Framework outlines a new qualifications structure and a new continuing Clinical Education system.

CONCLUSION

None of the above would be possible without the enormous support St John enjoys from the communities of New Zealand. This support manifests itself in our Area Committees, providing a vital link into our communities. It is also a reflection of the iconic status St John enjoys and which we must continue to earn.

As we move towards celebrating our 125th anniversary in New Zealand in 2010, we look forward to continuing to serve the community in the year ahead. Thanks to you all for your hard work, dedication and support of our national treasure – St John.

> HOSPITALLER'S REPORT

St John New Zealand can be justly proud of its contribution to our Hospital. This support has increased in recent years through our efforts to provide our members with more material and information about the Hospital.

The Hospital's London based office provides a range of publications from the popular quarterly magazine Jerusalem Scene through to the Hospital's board reports. We make this material available to our members and external audiences such as church groups and kindred service organisations. We are also able to access resources through the Hospital's website www.stjohneyehospital.org.

Anthony Chignell, the Order's Hospitaler, reports that clinical activity at the Hospital continues to improve. The Hospital now has six surgeons capable of performing modern cataract surgery. Outpatient numbers have increased significantly with Hospital attendances holding up well. What is very good news is that in 2007 over 25,000 children have been seen. Children are in special need in the population we serve. Thirty percent of Palestinians are under the age of 10 years, and family inter-marriage produces a high incidence of congenitally acquired ophthalmic disease.

Diabetes occurs in about fifteen percent of the population, with medical care for this group poor and screening and early treatment of eye complications rudimentary. Laser facilities are now available in all of our clinical areas and the number of patients treated has increased.

Static centres are all showing increased activity. At Hebron, the clinic looks after a large local population. The Gaza clinic is doing well in spite of appalling access difficulties and isolation. That clinic is now doing more surgery since the appointment of another doctor. At Anabta, we are working in partnership with the Palestinian Red Crescent Society and while we are not doing secondary care work there yet, this will occur when staffing levels have increased.

Here in New Zealand, we have recently introduced a promotional bookmark – a simple tool to promote further awareness and information about how to support the Hospital. This includes making it known we have members passionate about our Hospital who are available to talk to groups – both in our organisation and the community.

Dr Tahira Malik, Honorary Senior Lecturer in Ophthalmology at Auckland School of Medicine, continues to advocate in the medical community for our Hospital. The search for clinicians willing to work with dedicated teams in the Holy Land continues.

I extend our thanks to Lord Vestey and Anthony Chignell who have retired from the role of Board Chairman and Order Hospitaler respectively.

> LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

The focus for the year has been the project to write a new history of St John.

The draft has been completed by our historian and biographer Graeme Hunt. He's made new discoveries, such as previously unknown minute books of national meetings from 1910 onwards held at the Alexander Turnbull Library; as well as photographs, documents and facts of importance.

Two projects to support our new history have been updating the Roll of the Priory from 1895 and the list of office bearers. Both these projects are progressing to completion. Online resources, such as the London Gazette Archives, are proving most useful in confirming Order appointments and the spelling of names. The site is at www.gazettes-online.co.uk

All the activities mentioned above, and the leadership of our two main archives in Auckland and in Christchurch, are providing impetus to how we might approach the development of a heritage policy.

While researching and writing the book, Graeme Hunt is discovering more and more historic material being held by Area Committees when this could be moved to appropriate archive facilities. A heritage policy is being drafted and the Ministry of Culture and Heritage is supportive of this important project.

I had the pleasure of attending part of the Centennial Celebrations of the Selwyn Guide Division – a Division in Christchurch of which I was once a member. The story of this Division is a wonderful reflection of the service of St John members to their community over a long period, which of course is being repeated throughout New Zealand.

The contribution of this Division and every other part of our wonderful organisation deserves to be told and preserved for everyone to access now and in the future. I urge you to talk about preservation of our heritage and think of how we might best care for the items that have contributed to making St John an iconic organisation here in New Zealand.

While the Order of St John is an Order of the British Crown, it is recognised as an independent part of the New Zealand Royal Honours System. Its insignia and medals are approved by The Queen of New Zealand for wear with other honours conferred in this country.

The Order of St John is unique because it is a working order, with strict membership requirements. Membership places personal obligations and responsibilities on members and this year we have introduced admission and promotion guidance notes to help candidates better understand the Order. The notes, in booklet form, are in plain English and complement other material made available to candidates. It is our desire, both here and overseas, that we have well-informed members who are able to fully support the Order and its activities.

We are supporting the Order internationally in a number of different ways. Through the generosity of our members who have returned insignia when promoted, we have been able to send refurbished insignia for use in St John Associations in the Solomon Islands, Fiji and Zambia, where the cost of purchasing insignia can be prohibitive. We have also made our service awards and certificates available to the Associations mentioned above, as well as to Gibraltar and Zimbabwe. These initiatives are helping to build collegiality with the Order – something that we are striving to do internationally.

This year has been another mammoth year in regard to service recognition. Over 1,700 service badges, Service Medals, Bars, Laurels and certificates were approved and dispatched to regions for presentation.

I wish to record my thanks to the Registrar Murray Jones for his support and guidance and to the Order Matters Coordinators in our regions. They are responsible for supporting our ceremonial and other important activities of the Order, including the annual honours round, the triennial election process and support of the Fellowship branches.

I also congratulate the many St John members who have received service recognition during the year.

As I mentioned in the 2007 Yearbook, the Priory has adopted several changes to our honours system on a 'working basis' until the changes are enacted in our Order's Statutes and Regulations.

Changes included the nomenclature for Grade V (Serving Brothers and Sisters) now being titled Members, no further appointments to the Grade of Esquire (Grade VI) and the issue of new criteria governing admission and promotion in the Order.

As well, we have issued Grand Council Instructions concerning relationships with other Orders and organisations that purport to be Orders. These Instructions have been issued to clarify our Order's status in New Zealand.

Admission and promotion within the Order is conferred on an individual to recognise their achievements and responsibilities, or selfless and most notable service in supporting successfully and furthering the objects and purposes of the Order. In summary, a person is considered for admission and promotion on his or her merit. These internationally agreed changes have been in effect now for two years and will benefit our organisation greatly.

The Roll of the Priory in New Zealand stands at 1,602. I am amazed as to the range of activities that our members contribute to our organisation. At Investiture services we hear the wonderful citations recording the precise reasons why someone is being honoured for their contribution to St John and the community. Postulants who have been awarded the Grand Prior's Award are having this distinction recognised in the Order of Service at their Investiture. This Award is conferred by the Order with the sanction of The Queen as Sovereign Head. I am sure that earning this award is the motivation for many of our younger members deciding on making St John a lifelong commitment. You will see the awards conferred this year set out in this Yearbook.

I wish to personally take the opportunity to congratulate all who have received awards and honours during this year and thank you for all you have done and no doubt will continue to do for our Order.

Chaplaincy in St John has gone through structural and functional changes that parallel the changes experienced in other parts of our organisation.

Like many of our colleagues, we are seeking to identify relevant areas of service in contemporary New Zealand and focus on their development.

The ceremonial roles of Chaplains demonstrate the Order's continuing loyalty to the Pro Fide¹ element in our tradition and continue to be important. Alongside this we are developing a growing network of functional Chaplains, at regional and at district or area levels. They provide pastoral support, alongside the other agencies St John can call on, for our own members and those who support their St John commitments. Care for those who are 'first to care' is now an important priority for chaplaincy.

Chaplains, including the Dean and the Principal Chaplain, are volunteers. Appointments are being made carefully and progressively, with the active participation of Regional Principal Officers and Human Resources managers. Half of the newly appointed Chaplains have had previous St John experience – often as cadets. Others new to the organisation are catching the enthusiasm and commitment of those around them.

The rollout of the new functional Chaplaincy has been the responsibility of the Principal Chaplain, the Rev Bob Tremewan. His flexibility and availability, alongside a demanding role as Chaplain of Cathedral Grammar School, Christchurch, has been key to the significant progress we have made in finding and supporting people in Area or District Chaplaincy appointments. The quality of our Regional Chaplains has also been a vital factor. They have been proactive in 'shoulder-tapping', briefing and encouraging potential Chaplains, often leading to very positive new appointments.

This evolving Chaplaincy team is ecumenical in all senses, Catholic and Protestant, women and men, lay and ordained, demonstrating a remarkable unity of vision and purpose. Chaplains are aware of both the multi-faith and the secular dimensions of contemporary New Zealand life. We are happy to meet people without making assumptions or reflecting expectations, offering friendship and support, including practical help or relevant referrals, to the wider St John community.

The very useful conference of South Island Chaplains in 2007 was followed up by an equally successful conference of North Island Chaplains in May 2008, hosted in Wellington by Archdeacon Monty Black, Regional Chaplain, Central Region. We plan to continue alternating North Island and South Island conferences in this way to develop the quality and effectiveness of what we do.

The New Zealand St John Prayer Book has been widely welcomed overseas. This is another reminder that we belong to a diverse international community. It is my hope that we can strengthen these international links, to our mutual advantage.

SERVICE MEDALS AND BARS

The Service Medal of the Order of St John is unique as it is the only medal still issued that retains the image of Queen Victoria and the only one which has her facing to the right. It was first awarded in New Zealand in 1908. Queen Victoria established the Order as a Royal Order of Chivalry with the Royal Charter of 1888.

The Service Medal is awarded for efficient service after 12 years, with a Bar to the Medal available for every subsequent five years service. The Gilt Laurel Leaf (instituted in 2004) is awarded after 52 years of service.

The Service Medal is accorded a place in the New Zealand Order of Wear: Orders, Decorations and Medals, approved by The Queen.

Many years of service given by members are recognised in the Awards listed below. Congratulations to all recipients and deep thanks for the contribution you continue to make to St John and your communities.
